People Attending Ninth District
Rally Cheer When Rep. Pur-
nell Suggests Him For Office

CONTENT TO STAY IN SENATE

Indiana Senator Says He Favors
Woman Suffrage Because it is
Barrier Against Socialism

Senator James E. Watson of this city was given a big ovation at the ninth district republican rally at Kokomo, yesterday afternoon, when Representative Fred S. Purnell of the ninth district said that three-fourths of the republicans in the house are in favor of Watson for president. The crowd arose and shouted its approval, according to a dispatch from Kokomo today.

Several local republicans had planned to attend the rally, but decided not to go when a dispatch from Kokomo Thursday evening said that Senator Watson probably would not be able to attend.

Senator Watson in replying said that he was not out for the presidency; that he was content to remain in the senate and all he wished was to be returned.

Representative Purnell and Miss Mary Stewart of New York, secretary of the woman's branch of the republican national committee, also spoke at the love feast. Senator Watson, in paying tribute to Miss Stewart, who preceded him, declared he was converted to the cause of woman suffrage because the women of the United States are the chief barriers to Socialism now threatening this country.

Republicans had gathered from all over the district to attend the rally, which was held at a Kokomo theater, because of threatening weather. Despite a rain, which had drenched the roads, a large out-of-town delegation was at hand, packing the theater.

The senator at the outset of his speech dealt with the woman suffrage issue, saying that the time had come when the women of America must be organized to prevent them from being fooled again.

"It was the women's vote that elected President Wilson," he declared "and they voted for him because he kept us out of war."

"I was not for woman suffrage at first," said the senator. "It was not until I began to fear Socialism. Socialism is against private ownership. Socialism strikes at the home. It does away with marriage. It takes the babies away from the breasts of the mothers and does away with all that is sacred to American womankind. For that reason I am for woman suffrage."

The senator went into an elaborate attack on both administrations of President Wilson, declaring that the weak policy with Mexico led Germany to believe we would not stand up for our rights. He assailed President Wilson's election on his "program of hypocrisy," recalling the billboards that spread the campaign's slogan, "He protected me and mine," when he knew at that time war was inevitable. The senator declared that that was reducing politics to a low plane and appealed for the square deal.

He also assailed the railroad administration and then jumped on the league of nations. Senator Watson declared that peace with Germany could have been concluded long ago if the president had not insisted on the league. He said that all America had to do is to say respect American rights or feel the power of American government and all will respect us. He cited the military program and the universal training favored by the administration as not being square with the league, asking

TEMPERATURE TAKES DROP

Somewhat Like Hogs—Falls Off Ten
Degrees This A. M.

The weather man kept his promise last night when he said rain and colder for today. At six o'clock last night it cleared off, and indications pointed out that the weather man was going to be mistaken, as he had been the night before, when he predicted a cold wave which never reached here. About midnight a heavy rain began to fall, and earlier in the morning it continued to rain. The temperature at seven o'clock this morning was 52 degrees, and a drop of ten degrees was noticed before noon. Fair weather, with continued cold, is the prediction for Sunday.

TEACHERS TO ATTEND THE STATE MEETING

Rushville Schools Will be Dismissed
Friday, Oct. 31 to Allow Them
to Enjoy Sessions

NO MEETING HELD LAST YEAR

Many Rush county school teachers will attend the annual meeting of the Indiana Teachers association which will be held in Indianapolis October 30 and 31 and November 1. Plans have been made to dismiss the Rushville schools on Friday, October 31, so that the teachers may attend Friday's session. Teachers will receive full pay if they attend the state association on the day that school is dismissed, but it is not compulsory for them to be present.

In many cities of the state, the schools will be dismissed both Thursday and Friday, but the first word received here was that no meeting would be held on Thursday, and arrangements were made just to dismiss the schools on Friday.

Many teachers are planning to go Thursday evening at the close of school in order to hear the address by Governor Lowden of Illinois that night. There was no meeting of the state association last year on account of the war, which has tended to increase interest in this year's session.

HUTCHERSON APPEARS AND GIVES BOND TODAY

Liberty Man Enters no Plea to Indictment Charging Unlawful
Driving of Automobile

CORTUER NOT IN COURT TODAY

Grover C. Hutcherson of Liberty, who was indicted by the grand jury last week on a charge of operating an automobile unlawfully, appeared in court late yesterday afternoon and gave bond for $50, but entered no plea. He ran into a traffic post at the corner of Morgan and Second streets a year ago last March and later sued the city for $500 damages for obstructing the street. The jury disagreed when the case was heard and the suit has been sent to Decatur county for another trial. Hutcherson was once tried before Mayor Irvin by a jury for unlawful driving of an automobile, but was acquitted.

It was expected that Martin Cortuer of Indianapolis, who was found guilty by a jury yesterday afternoon in surety of peace proceedings, would be brought before Judge Sparks today, but he had not been taken into court early this afternoon. It is stated that Cortuer will be set free if he gives bond to do so, will have to serve ninety days in jail.

LOCAL MEN WILL BE ON SYNOD PROGRAM

Annual United Presbyterian Meeting
in Morning Sun, O., Next Week
To be Attended by Many

THE PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Besides Local Pastor, the Rev. C. S.
Black Will Tell Them How
The Methodists Did It

The sixty-second annual meeting of the Second Synod of the United Presbyterian church of North America will take place October 14 and 15, at Morning Sun, Ohio, as the Rushville church is a part of this synod, the Rev. J. T. Aikin and A. C. Brown will go from here, and every church in the county will be represented.

The Rev. Mr. Aikin of the local church is chairman on boards of the church committee, and they will make a report on Wednesday afternoon. The meeting commences Tuesday night and every minute on Wednesday is taken up with some kind of work, Thursday morning the session adjourns.

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson, formerly pastor of the local church, is on the program for several sermons and talks. He is now synodical superintendent of missions.

One of the main things which will be dealt with in the annual meeting this year, is the "New World Movement," of which much has been said at meeting of other church synods, and which is the big issue with churches since the close of the war.

In connection with this part of the program, the Rev. Clyde S. Black, of the St. Paul's M. E. church of this city, will deliver an address on Wednesday, the subject being, "How the Methodists did it in Their Centenary."

With the local men on the program next week, it is likely that the annual synod will attract quite a few Rushville people to the meeting. The program has been completely arranged for the occasion, and addresses will be delivered by Ernest B. McClellan, retiring moderator; J. Knox Montgomery, secretary; J. Alvin Orr, chairman; and many others who are well known to the synod, of which the United Presbyterian of this city is a member.

WHEAT PROSPECTS PLEASE THE FARMERS

Rain Has Proven Beneficial To Crop
But Has Delayed The Cutting
of Corn

WHEAT ACREAGE IS SMALLER

The rain of the last few days has hindered farm work in many places, especially where corn cutting had been started. While the rain has stopped farm work in some instances, yet the farmers who have their wheat planted are very thankful for the showers. A large acreage of wheat has been sown, and farmers say that it is coming up in fine shape and they are highly elated with the early prospects.

Much corn ground will be sown in wheat this fall and the work of cutting corn is stopped temporarily in a few places. The farmers say that wheat may be safely sown as late as the fifteenth of this month. There is not as much wheat being sowed this year, as last year, because of the uncertainty of market conditions.

ORGANIZATION IS ANNOUNCED HERE

Plans are Being Completed For Roosevelt Memorial Campaign
Which Opens Oct. 19

TOWNSHIP CHAIRMEN NAMED.

Local Sentiment Believed to Favor
Project to Provide Memorials to Former President.

The personnel of the county organization which is expected to raise Rush county's portion of the state fund for a Roosevelt memorial, was announced today by Earl H. Payne, county chairman. The organization is composed of the county committee and a chairman and a vice-chairman in each township, with complete organizations for Rushville city and the remainder of the township outside of the city.

Several who are interested in the memorial campaign and have been talking with Rush county men, find that the sentiment is very favorable towards the project, and they feel that liberal donations will be made here.

Roosevelt had hosts of admirers here during his lifetime, and since his death, many who did not agree with him when he left the republican party, have come to find that he was one of the greatest men America has ever produced. Those who were once bitter against Roosevelt have learned that he had characteristics of which they knew nothing and which entitled him to recognition at the hands of the American people. His straight-forward and uncompromising Americanism during the war made friends of many of his former foes here.

The first plan was to raise $200,000 in the state for the national memorial fund, which will be devoted to the following purposes:

First. To build a suitable memorial at Washington.

Second. To establish a national shrine at Oyster Bay, Long Island, at the home of the former president.

Third. To acquire, restore and maintain Theodore Roosevelt's birthplace in New York City.

Fourth. Through an endowed foundation to perpetuate Roosevelt ideals of courageous Americanism.

LIQUOR DEALERS TO BE RAIDED VERY SOON

Government Prepares to Break up
Practice of Selling Intoxicants
Regardless of Law

MUCH 2% BEER BEING SOLD

Washington, Oct. 11.—Wholesale raids upon liquor dealers are being planned by the government today. Within four days the sale of liquor containing more than 1/2 of 1 percent of alcohol will be illegal.

Reports on the liquor sale are being made by the government agents now, it was learned. When the president signs the bill, raids are expected to start.

It is known that in many cities all varieties of liquor have been sold despite the law.

Beer of 2 1/2 percent quality has been openly dispensed.

ADOPTS CONFERENCE REPORT

Washington, Oct. 11.—Legislation aimed at the high cost of living was passed today by the senate which adopted the conference report in the bill which amends the food control act. The bill now goes to the house for final action.

EMANUEL MAKES A THREAT

Says He Will Abdicate if Military
Continues to Support D'Annunzio

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 11.—The Rome correspondent of the Morning Post reported he has learned from a reliable source that King Emmanuel has threatened to abdicate if the army and navy department insists on supporting D'Annunzio at Fiume.

Other dispatches declare that General Cechinon has resigned as commander of the Florence army corps and has issued a manifesto divesting himself of an oath to "King" D'Annunzio's forces at Fiume. He was appointed commander of the military forces there, according to the dispatches.

BURGLARS ENTER SCHATZ'S HOUSE

Robbery is Discovered When Miss
Libby Schatz Finds Her Purse
Had Been Stolen

ENTER BY UNLOCKED WINDOW

Burglars entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Schatz, corner of Sexton and Third streets, Thursday night, it became known today, and stole a pocketbook belonging to Miss Libby Schatz, which contained $6. The theft was not discovered until yesterday noon when Miss Schatz went to get her purse out of the library table drawer.

Members of the family remarked yesterday morning, that someone was probably in the house the night before because the drawers in the buffet were open and apparently had been ransacked. As nothing was missed, however, the burglar theory was forgotten until Miss Schatz discovered the loss of her pocketbook. It was then found that the robber had gained entrance through a window in the dining room which had not been locked.

It was on Thursday night that burglars entered the home of Howard Stamm, 522 West First street, where the police were called yesterday. Nothing was taken at Stamm's home.

Says President Continues to Show Signs of Improvement

IS IN TOUCH WITH AFFAIRS

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Wilson will be forced to remain in bed for an extended period, it was announced at the White House this afternoon.

Dr. Grayson made this announcement in his daily bulletin.

The bulletin said the president shows signs of continued improvement but his condition is such as to necessitate him remaining in bed for an extended period.

During the last forty-eight hours the president has been in touch with affairs of state obtained from Dr. Grayson.

Four doctors affixed their signatures on the bulletin concerning the president's condition for the first time today.

FALL OF RIGA IS NOT CONFIRMED

Reports Received Today Add Little
to Previous Dispatches Concerning "New German War"

INTEREST FOCUSED ON NOTE

Question Arises Whether Supreme
Council's Ultimatum Will Cause
Withdrawal of Huns

London, Oct. 11.—Confirmation of a newspaper report that German forces have captured Riga is being awaited here, but if the disparity of the rival forces is as great as reported in some dispatches, the success of the attack on the city would not be surprising.

"Germany's new war" is featured in this morning's newspapers, but reports printed here add nothing of importance to dispatches previously received.

The whereabouts of General von der Goltz, continues to be the subject of contradictory rumors and estimates of the size of the army commanded by Colonel Avaloff-Bermond also show a wide divergence.

It is recalled that General Keller, commander of a large body of soldiers in the Baltic provinces, recruited from German troops left in Courland by the allies at the time of the armistice, is a Baltic baron, formerly a general in the Russian army. He has established headquarters at Shavli, while General von der Goltz has his headquarters at Mitau.

Prince Peter Lieven, formerly of the Russian foreign office, is superintending the co-ordination of the forces commanded by these two leaders, it being intended to transfer the occupation of Lithuania and Courland to a nominally Russian-Lithuanian army, composed in part of Germans from the ranks of Von der Goltz's troops. This move, it is said, led to the present hostilities.

The Morning Post, which is pronounced anti-German, attacks the British government for having "fumbled the whole question." It sees Poland "in danger of being throttled by the Teutonic grip now tightening on her throat," and says that Premier Paderewski's flying visit to London recently was for the purpose of imploring help from Great Britain, which the newspaper hopes will be granted.

The Daily News, representing an opposite view from that of the Morning Post, also attacks the government and the allies, declaring:

"The unintelligible chaos into

Long Big Bone, the second, the Indiana champion boar, owned by J. A. Shelton and Son of Manila, made a good showing in the national show held this week at Des Moines, Ia., where it took fourth place. There were eight prizes and the fact that he was shown with the best animals in the country is evidence that he is a great hog. Hog raisers throughout the country who were there, stated that Long Big Bone should have had first or second prize, but Mr. Shelton is well pleased.

what need of such a large army if there were to be peace?

"President Wilson is a sick man," said Senator Watson, expressing his hope for the early recovery of the chief executive, "but his policies have always been sick."

The senator dropped his glasses during his speech. He surveyed the fragments for a minute and then told the crowd: "I can't see very well without my glasses, but I can see enough to see the defects in the league."

One hundred and twenty-five boys and girls in Sullivan County, members of pig, poultry, sewing, canning or similar clubs, attended a club outing held recently at the Merion chautauqua.

Nash Trucks

Experienced Buyers Recognize Unusual Values of Nash Trucks

Careful investigation of the Nash truck line convinces the experienced buyer of the high value of any truck bearing the Nash name plate.

This is illustrated again by the fact that after an extensive experience with motor truck transportation of various types, the U. S. Marine Corps selected the Nash Quad as standard equipment for expeditionary service. This is the reason Nash trucks are hauling the loads of many big commercial concerns which operate fleets of trucks in many cities.

This preference for Nash trucks is based on sound business judgment. For they have behind them, assuring their continued good performance, the standing and permanency in the industry of the Nash institution with its nation-wide sales and service organizations of distributors and dealers.

Rushville High School Varsity Defeats Arlington First Team Friday Night, 38 to 12.

SECOND STRING WINS TOO.

Makes Curtain Raiser From Arlington Seconds, 23 to 10—Capt. Headlee in Good Form.

Rushville high school basketball team opened the season at the Graham Annex gymnasium with two victories, the varsity defeating the Arlington high school team 38 to 12 and the Rushville second team winning from the Arlington second team 23 to 10 last night. The visitors never had a show at any stage of either game.

Next week's date was open on the Rushville schedule but has been filled, a game having been arranged with Morristown.

Casady, Rushville forward, and Moore, guard, performed in star fashion in the curtain raiser, the former throwing three field goals and the latter five. Arlington's best point winner was W. Nelson, forward, who was credited with two field goals and four foul goals.

Headlee, captain of Rushville's first team, led the way in the main game of the evening with eight field and two foul goals, scoring almost half of the points. Eakins, guard, was not far behind this record with six field goals. D. Nelson outpointed his team mates on the Arlington five scoring six points with three field goals.

The attendance was good, considering the fact that it was the opening of the season. Carl Gunning refereed both contests.

The summaries follow:

JUNIORS PLAN TO BE BROTHERS AND SISTERS TO WORLD CHILDREN

LITTLE brothers and sisters to all the children of the world—that's what the school boys and girls of America are going to be called from now on. The Junior Membership department of the Red Cross has a plan which will gather them all into this relationship. Even the smaller kiddies will be included. In central Europe 200,000 children are starving—75,000 are hungry and homeless in Petrograd alone. Sixty per cent of the membership fees are to be sent to National Headquarters for a National Children's Fund to relieve suffering throughout the world. In America, in smaller numbers, there are children in need of help. These unfortunate are not to be forgotten while the orphans of France and Belgium are receiving aid. The remaining forty per cent of the Junior fees, as well as any additional money raised by the school children, is to be expended for community activities.

Under this head there are many classes. Crippled children are to be found in almost any town, and the Juniors will help them to buy crutches or artificial hands and legs. Little folks in need of hospital or medical care will have American Red Cross Juniors ready to foot the bills if the fathers aren't able to pay the expenses. Junior auxiliaries will try to furnish diversion for the children who live in orphanages and for the shut-ins. The ideal of the organization is to establish international understanding and good will among all children; to provide motives for purposeful school activities, and to carry out ideals and habits of service.

IND. AND MINN. TO MEET ON GRIDIRON

Football Teams of Two Colleges Will Clash in Indianapolis Next Saturday

BOTH HAVE STRONG TEAMS

Winner Will Stand Chance to Win Championship of The Western Conference

With the world's baseball title decided this week, the eyes of Hoosier sport lovers will turn to the state football classic which will be staged at Indianapolis, Saturday, October 18, between the universities of Indiana and Minnesota. The winner of this contest will prove a decided contender for the championship of the western conference and as both institutions boast teams of unusual caliber, a battle royal is predicted. No game in the state this year will bring such a large number of fans to the capital, and alumni of I. U. from all parts of the state are planning to attend the contest.

A peculiar clause barring moving pictures of the game has been inserted in the contract between the two schools at the insistence of Coach Williams of Minnesota. When Coach Stiehm of Indiana was head mentor at Nebraska, his eleven wall-painted Minnesota and moving pictures of the contest were shown all over the Missouri Valley. Williams was so enraged over the publicity given his defeat that he always demanded afterwards that no reels should be made of any game in which his men took part.

That the Gopher coach respects the ability of the Hoosier pigskin chasers is shown by the scouts who have been attending Indiana's early games. These men have filled many pages with diagrams of the plays used and the Minnesota players have been specially trained in stopping them. This information will prove of little value, however, as nothing but straight football has been employed so far by Stiehm's men. In the next ten days a box of trick plays will be opened for the benefit of the Northwestern. They will consist largely of forward passes which made football so spectacular from the average spectator's point of view.

GOV'T. WILL GRADE ALL WHEAT ON APPEAL

Wheat Director Announces That he Will Take Care of Intrastate as Well as Interstate Transactions

THE LAW HAS BEEN CHANGED.

Washington, D. C. October 11—Effective immediately, the United States Department of Agriculture will handle all wheat appeals from licensed inspectors' grades on intrastate as well as interstate transaction. Formerly, under the grain standards act, wheat was required to be shipped or delivered for shipment across State lines before an appeal could be taken to the Government.

The new arrangement has been made by the Secretary at the urgent request of Julius H. Barnes, United States Wheat Director, and is effective under authority and during the continuation of the Food Control Act, the Wheat Guaranty Act, and the Executive order of May 14, 1919. Mr. Barnes stated that it was necessary to make the appeal privilege on all wheat whether interstate or intrastate in order to make the guarantee good to the producer of wheat everywhere in the United States.

Pursuant to this agreement Federal Grain Supervisors in all the large markets of the United States have been instructed to entertain all wheat appeals.

More Than Billion Wasted.

The waste of more than a billion dollars in the construction of aircraft which never reached the battle front which has been alleged many times since the war ended, is proved by testimony taken by James A. Frear, chairman of the sub-committee named by the war expenditures committee of the national house of representatives to visit the Pacific coast.

Not only was money wasted just like throwing it in the ocean, in building aircraft which was never within sound of a gun, but also there was useless waste in the construction of railroads, according to Mr. Frear. The actual expenditure of $1,055,000,000 produced no results whatever in the way of providing machines for American airmen who were waiting for a chance at the Germans.

Of the original amount of $1,600,000,000 appropriated by congress for air work in the prosecution of the war, enough was stopped by legislation shortly after the armistice to bring the figure down to nearly a billion dollars, but of this total not any actual battle result was ever achieved. There were 235 de Havilland observation planes on the front, but no bombing machines. It is expected that the full evidence of the ruthless extravagance in the expenditure will be brought out in the report of the committee.

In Oregon a railroad spur for logging purposes was built from Yakima Bay south to what is known as the Blodgett tract. The 23 miles of road were constructed at a cost of $90,000 a mile. The cost of building this same road in ordinary circumstances would have been $10,000 or $15,000 a mile. On December 2, 1918, nearly a month after the signing of the armistice, a contract was made for the purchase of timber in the Blodgett tract at the price of $675,000. This when all necessity for the purchase had passed.

Another road was constructed from Yakima Bay north ten miles, at a cost of $1,440,000, or $144,000 per mile, as compared to the $10,000 or $15,000 per mile for average construction of logging roads in that section. This was not built directly into the spruce tract needed for airplane construction, but by a roundabout and unnecessary way.

From a junction at Disque, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, into the Lake Pleasant and Olympic tract of spruce in Washington, 36 miles of logging road were built at a cost of $4,000,000. This does not include equipment at an additional cost of $60,000 per mile. The road was not built directly into the tract, but by such a route as would eventually benefit the main line of the road. All of the three roads investigated were found to have been salvaged after the war for about 8 per cent of the cost to the government, and can be of benefit only to the main lines of the Northern Pacific and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. All of the contracts were let by the Secretary of War.

Long Hours.

An argument submitted on behalf of the striking steel workers made the point that working hours have been too long in the past. When work is arduous, we are told that it is prejudicial to a man's health to work more than eight hours, one day after another.

There seems to be sense in this. Many of the jobs in steel mills are singularly arduous. Of course, the farm hand works longer hours, but the grind is not so killing. And it is bad economics—also morally wrong—to let men continue working under conditions which hurt their health.

On the other hand, most steel workers draw exceedingly high wages. A few of them even make as much as $60 to $80 a day, which is a pretty good sum to drag down, even if the day's work is tiring. This, however, is no argument for making a working day long enough to be prejudicial to health.

Both sides are wrong. Some way of shortening the working day would, one would think, be easy to work out. According to some of the chemical experts at the mills, a shorter day would not be consistent with the manufacture of certain grades of steel—extraordinary conditions are necessary in the construction of it. This may be true, but the war has taught us how to accomplish nearly everything that is chemically and anatomically impossible, and here is one more chance for a high-flying savant. This however, would not satisfy the strikers. They want an enforcement of their rule forbidding any man to work at their trade without their consent. And in a free country it should be every man's privilege to work, if he likes, wherever an employer can use him. Let any man who wants to join a union, but let those who prefer to stay out do so without being penalized for their independence.

The world was not made in a day. Neither was a fortune—honestly.

Don't be a grouch until after you have made your pile. Then you are only eccentric.

As the leaves begin to fall a rake is a handy thing to have around the yard. Their possibilities are only appreciated by those who pass by after using.

A marriage license has been issued to Zeno Hodge, a farmer of this county, and Mary L. Neatch, a school teacher. Both parties live in the Homer neighborhood.

Archibald Freeman, Professor of History at Andover Academy, has, during many long years of faithful service, placed great stress on the date of the signing of the Magna Charter. In the dome of his lofty forehead there is firm conviction that all sons of democracy should know before all else that 1215 is the date of this important event. Once in an effort to impress one of the lower classes in history with the overwhelming importance this date bears upon the freedom of man he said:

"If at any time you ever forget the date of the signing of the Magna Charter wire me."

George Perley Elliott, a member of the class and the captain-elect of the football team, spent the following summer in Europe. One day Professor Freeman received the following cable, collect:

"Have forgotten date Magna Charter. Cable. Important." (Signed) Elliott.

Big Lot of Hay Fever Jokes

But Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINETY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcine and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and sniff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show it is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Best Class of Pharmacists who dispense Mentholized Arcine say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin."

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint.

WILL USE FLAG MAST FOR A LIBERTY POLE

Civic Center Will be Established on Admiral Farragut's Old Home Grounds

MAST FROM U. S. S. HARTFORD

Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Plans were complete today transposing the old home of Admiral Farragut and the grounds of the old Zion church into a civic center here and to erect there as a "Liberty pole" the mainmast of the U. S. S. Hartford, the Admiral's flagship.

The church grounds recently were given to the Grace Episcopal church here by Mrs. W. W. Fowler, of Parkville, S. C., following suggestion of Rev. Horace E. Clute, pastor, who had been working on the idea for several months.

Carrying out the plans will depend on the decision of the navy department to allow use of the obsolete ship's mast. It is understood, however, no difficulties will be met, Rev. Clute said.

Admiral Farragut lived here before the war and Zion church was built with prize money won by the admiral in the capture of Confederate blockade runners.

Harry O. Brown, historian, who learned that the Hartford had been relegated to the scrapheap, asked Assistant Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt for its use.

C. E. Pearce, of Deer Creek township, Miami county, applied his first carload of limestone recently and was so well pleased with the operation that he has ordered enough lime to cover all the fields he will have in crops next year.

Task of Investigating Health Situation in Schools is Started by the Committee

MANY CITIES INTERESTED.

Greensburg Man Would Have Each School Hire a Competent Nurse To Instruct the Pupils

Indianapolis, Oct. 11—The task of investigating the public health situation in the public schools throughout the state, was begun by a committee today, appointed by L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction, at the regular session of the state board of education.

The matter was first brought before the board by Elmer C. Jorman, the demand for some sort of a program which would lift to a high status the health of school children through proper care and early training along health lines, is greater than the public seems to realize. Instances were cited where many cases of disease among school children could have been checked, with a healthful youthhood resulting, had it been possible to have the child properly safe-guarded against the ills common from contact.

Suggestions were offered by Mr. Jorman which could be carried through if the laws affecting the public health problem were properly written. A trained nurse, Mr. Jorman stated, who would be qualified to teach or a teacher educated along lines of child hygiene would be one way of meeting the situation, not only in Greensburg, but in every city and county throughout the state. Another suggestion was that two departments could be maintained in state schools one for training in Physical culture and the other for instructions in personal hygiene.

E. L. Rickerts of Connersville, a member of the school board, also secretary of the tuberculosis society in that city, outlined the work which had been done toward the betterment of health conditions in his vicinity. Interesting photographs were displayed showing children of all ages affected by various diseases before and after public health service had been rendered. Many cases of spinal curvature which had been seemingly hopeless were caught in time to be corrected, children outgrowing the deformity in a perfect manner.

Much thought has been given to the fresh air question for the purpose of caring for children with lung weaknesses, and it is believed that if the proper amount of funds can be secured through the activities of the Tuberculosis Association of Indiana, provisions can be made for further checking the spread of dread disease.

The people of Shelbyville and Shelby county are squarely behind the child health movement according to J. W. Holton, county school superintendent. The committee appointed by the board of education includes E. U. Graff, E. B. Weatherow and B. J. Burris. The matter is expected to assume a more forcible aspect when it is brought before the next session of the board, as the committee will be able to render a report in full of conditions as they find them in the state.

The plans of the board of education will have hearty co-operation according to E. Q. Laudeman, executive secretary of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association. This is one of the problems that has held the interest of the association for some time. Mr. Laudeman will render all the assistance which can be afforded by this organization toward crushing out the menace. The $270,000 fund will be raised through the sale of 27,000,000 Red Cross Christmas seals by the association, will be used to place a public health nurse in every community throughout the state.

Phonograph Music at its Complete Best

THE mission of the phonograph is to reproduce music just as it was originally rendered. It is not intended that it shall create tones or harmonies of its own. It is simply a medium for picturing, as vividly as possible, the tone-colors of all voices and all instruments.

The peculiar ability of the Aeolian-Vocalion to reproduce musical tones in their natural and original colors is the key to its superiority—a superiority clearly audible to every listener who possesses a musical ear.

Ever since its appearance on the market four years ago, the Vocalion has been recognized by musicians as having the power to render musical tones more clearly and in a more life-like manner than any phonograph. From the first it was possible for the Vocalion to obtain from phonograph records of various makes, tonal beauties that had never before been audible.

Style 620

We invite you to call at our display rooms and hear for yourself—hear your favorite record played—as you have never before dreamed that it could be played—Hear the New Vocalion play all makes of disc records with the same reproducer, with the same needle—AND IMPOSSIBLE—as it may seem to you—without that terrible GRINDING, SCRATCHING NOISE so commonly heard on the ordinary Phonograph. The New Vocalion with its exclusive features, the Graduola Tone Control, the Improved Automatic Stop and the Insulated lid should appeal to you, if you want Phonograph Music at its Complete Best. Don't be misled. Hear the Vocalion and have its construction explained to you thoroughly before you buy a phonograph. It will be a half hour well spent, and we will be pleased to show you, whether you are ready to buy or not.

BE A MEMBER OF THE JUNIOR RED CROSS

ANY American school, whether it be public, private or parochial, may have a Junior Red Cross auxiliary.

Membership in the Junior Red Cross may be obtained by applying to the nearest Red Cross chapter. As soon as the school enrolls as an auxiliary, every boy and girl in that school becomes a member of the Junior Red Cross.

Membership fees depend upon the size of the school. The yearly fee for each school is one-fourth as many dollars as there are pupils in the school. The Junior membership auxiliary fee is a school fund, not a sum to be collected from individual pupils. Some auxiliaries raise their money by sales or school entertainments. Others have "sacrifice boxes" where candy money is contributed to the Red Cross fund.

The chapter school committee receives the money from the school. Sixty per cent is forwarded to National Headquarters for the National Children's Fund, and forty per cent retained for neighborhood relief work.

THE THREE PURPOSES OF THE JUNIOR RED CROSS.

- To join American children in service for needy children at home and overseas.
- To give American children a chance to learn the satisfaction of unselfish service.
- To bring about understanding among children of all countries.

WITH the opening of the school term this fall the Junior Red Cross will be concerned with two new phases of education.

The first is the internationalization of general education. The other is the providing of scholarships for children of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines who wish to attend schools of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

The closer inter-relationship of nations, resulting from the war, is making necessary, among children everywhere an understanding of the social, industrial and commercial situations as they exist now and as they will be apt to develop.

The teacher who keeps in touch with Junior Red Cross activities will have, this fall, a monthly bulletin that will contain true stories of conditions and incidents over the world and will make her geography and history lessons as live and interesting as a motion picture. These bulletin stories and articles are specially prepared to give a basic understanding of the world as it is in the process of change today.

In order that fatherless boys and girls may have an education that will fit them for taking care of the family dependent upon them, the Juniors will try to provide a scholarship for the use of the orphans of men who have died in service.

What other phonograph dares this test

DID you ask some one about the Edison Tone-Test recital given October 3, at the Main Street Christian Church? The startled audience heard Amy Ellerman's living voice flood the packed house. It then heard the New Edison* match that voice, even unto its finest variation of shading and feeling. It heard the Fleming Sisters Trio repeat the experiment with their instrumental selections,—and again the New Edison matched every quality of harmonized violin, 'cello and piano. Any one who was present will tell you:

The art of the living artist and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison can not be told apart.

It is no idle phrase that you can enjoy Case, Middleton, Hempel, Matzenauer, Spalding—in your own home. The New Edison brings all that the great artist can bring, except his physical presence. It is the phonographic triumph of the age.

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Come in and hear this wonder for yourself—the Three Million Dollar Phonograph* that RE-CREATES the very soul of music.

*The instrument used in this Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $285 (in Canada $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

Sometimes in front just under the heart, sometimes around under the left side, under the ribs behind the heart it's a sharp or acute pains; sometimes a dull heavy pain, leaving soreness. It's gas on the inside generated through gaseous foods, or, because of systematic inability to properly assimilate the food, this gas soon collecting, forms a lump that causes the pain. This is only one of a dozen different indications which PEPISINCO immediately relieves. Keep PEPISINCO handy and take it the next time.

TRADE WITH BRAZIL IS EXPECTED TO BOOM

With the Establishment of the American Chamber of Commerce, Business Will Take a Bound

S. AMERICAN TRADE SOUGHT

New York, Oct. 11.—Further stimulation of American business in South America is expected to result from the action of the recently organized American Chamber of Commerce for Brazil in appointing Leslie E. Freeman as resident representative in New York.

Freeman will devote his entire attention to development of trade relations between Brazil and the United States and will make available to all manufacturers and exporters interested in the Latin-American field detailed information regarding business conditions in Brazil.

The American Chamber of Commerce for Brazil is rapidly extending its influence. Since its organization three years ago its entire energies have been directed towards the betterment of trade relations. A chamber has already been organized at Sao Paulo, the great Brazilian industrial center, and other branches are to be organized in other cities of the Latin-American republic.

The chamber, through Paul C. Trimble, its secretary-manager was active in combatting the recent anti-American propaganda in Rio de Janeiro, which sprang up at a time when competition for Brazilian trade was becoming keen.

TO REVIVE "MADE-IN GERMANY" TOY TRADE

This is Hope Expressed by Economic Minister Schmidt Following Visit to Leipsic Fair

BRANCH WELL REPRESENTED

(By United Press.)
Berlin (By Mail)—The "made-in-Germany" toy industry will come into its own again, according to hope and belief expressed by Economic Minister Schmidt following his visit to the Leipsic industrial fair.

Schmidt pointed out that this branch of industry was particularly well represented. Porcelain and glass lines were likewise displayed extensively, but everywhere the minister heard the complaint that lack of coal, lack of rawstuffs and unfavorable exchange were making the German industrial position difficult.

One big American shoe house was represented at the fair, and closed many orders despite the high prices—in marks—demanded for the product.

Team Will be Chosen From Among High Average Shooters in A. T. A. Tournament

COMPETE IN OLYMPIC GAMES

New York, Oct. 10.—Uncle Sam will send a team of trapshooters to compete in the olympic games at Antwerp next year.

Showing made by America's best gun men in the mid-winter trap shooting tournament at Pinehurst, N. C., from January 19 to 24, will have much to do with the selection of the men who will fly the colors of the United States against the world.

The team will be chosen from among the high average shooters in the A. T. A. tournaments of 2,000 targets or more. It may be the ten leading shooters or a team selected from the first twenty or fifty by a competent committee.

Among the country's star amateurs who may get to make the trip to Belgium are Frank Troeh, Vancouver, Wash.; Art Risser, Paris, Ill.; Wolf Henderson, Lexington, Ky.; Oscar Hansen, Fremont, Neb.; Horace Bonser, Cincinnati; L. M. Weeden, Cleveland; F. E. Brint, Toledo.

Amusements

"Ruling Passions" at Princess

One of the most delightful stories ever told on the screen in Select Pictures' big special attraction, "Ruling Passions," which comes to the Princess Theatre tonight. This is a story written and directed by Abraham S. Schooner, featuring the two popular artists, Julia Dean and Edwin Arden.

The theme of "Ruling Passions" proves to be a test between the passions of Hate and Revenge and Love and Mercy, in their clash for the mastery of the human heart. John Walton, millionaire broker, has renounced the world and is living in the care of his nurse. As time passes the nurse, Eveline Roland, discovers the real cause of his trouble. Walton's best friend, a man whom he had taken into partnership in his firm, had robbed him of the girl he loved. Since then Walton had devoted his life to Hate and Revenge while Vernon, Walton's former friend, and his wife lived their lives apart.

Learning of these facts, Eveline patiently and tenderly attended the sorrowing man, until at last she succeeded in bringing back the flush of youth and happiness to his cheek. Once more a spirit of love and mercy ruled the life of the broker. His lifelong friend was forgiven and invited to call. In the meantime Walton had taken a growing interest in the nurse who had brought him back to health by her devoted tact and refined sympathy, and when the day came that he clasped the hand of his former partner in renewed friendship, he announced also his betrothal to the girl who had made all these things possible.

Kerrigan at the Mystic

The young heroine in "Come Again Smith," the new picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role which will be seen for the first time in this city today at the Mystic theatre, is an avowed optimist and it is she who puts the ambition and "pep" into young Smith that make him win in a most emphatic manner, and incidentally win the heart and hand of this very charming and fascinating young New York girl.

When Smith declares that he always had known hard luck, the girl inspires him with the declaration that "hard luck is the college yell of the fellow who quits cold, in the middle of Life's big game," and she adds, "the world hates a quitter worse than the Devil hates Billy Sunday."

Bob Gilmore, athlete and young man of wealth, came home from his club to find two business associates of his father, John Gilmore, belittling his mother. He knocked their heads together and threw them out of the house.

But as he returned to the library he overheard detectives accusing his father of forgery. To spare his mother's feelings he assumed the blame for the crime, then fought his way to liberty. Stealing back home the next day to bid his mother farewell, Bob learned that he was only her foster son. Who, then, were his real parents?

To aid him in answering that question he had only a jade ring, with the initials "MOR." Believing them to be the first letters of his name, Bob hit on a plan to discover the secret of his parentage. Since the police were on his trail anyway, he would enter the house of every man in the city whose name began with "MOR." By staging a fake burglary in each house he hoped to cause such a stir that finally someone who had knowledge of his past, and of the ring's significance, would come to light.

This gives some insight to the first episode of the thrilling serial, "Who Am I?" which begins Monday.

"Lombardi Ltd" at Murat

"Lombardi Ltd" Oliver Moroseo's famous comedy success, opens at the Shubert Murat Theatre, Monday night, October 13, for one week, matinees Wednesday and Saturday. Lee Carrille, the star of "Lombardi Ltd" has added greatly to his already brilliant reputation by his work in this play.

"Lombardi Ltd" is distinctly unlike anything that has come to the native stage and has brought to the stage a new set of characters—characters that are genuinely human, truly interesting and at all times exceedingly funny, while it goes behind the scenes of a fashionable dressmaking establishment and reveals things that have not hitherto been shown behind the footlights.

The feminine portion of the audience will find an added interest in "Lombardi gowns", especially in the creation he develops during the action.

Marie Colebrook as "Daisy Mahoney" the little mannequin who has obtained her knowledge of dressmaking establishments in particular and employers in general from the "movies" has a role which is quite as new and amusing as "Lombardi" himself. Lillian Brennard's extremely clever characterization of Molly, the forewoman; Hallan Bosworth's "Hodgkins" the bookkeeper and Harold Russell's performance of the theatrical manager are excellent.

People Attending Ninth District
Rally Cheer When Rep. Pur-
nell Suggests Him For Office

CONTENT TO STAY IN SENATE

Indiana Senator Says He Favors
Woman Suffrage Because it is
Barrier Against Socialism

Senator James E. Watson of this city was given a big ovation at the ninth district republican rally at Kokomo, yesterday afternoon, when Representative Fred S. Purnell of the ninth district said that three-fourths of the republicans in the house are in favor of Watson for president. The crowd arose and shouted its approval, according to a dispatch from Kokomo today.

Several local republicans had planned to attend the rally, but decided not to go when a dispatch from Kokomo Thursday evening said that Senator Watson probably would not be able to attend.

Senator Watson in replying said that he was not out for the presidency; that he was content to remain in the senate and all he wished was to be returned.

Representative Purnell and Miss Mary Stewart of New York, secretary of the woman's branch of the republican national committee, also spoke at the love feast. Senator Watson, in paying tribute to Miss Stewart who preceded him, declared he was converted to the cause of woman suffrage because the women of the United States are the chief barriers to Socialism now threatening this country.

Republicans had gathered from all over the district to attend the rally, which was held at a Kokomo theater, because of threatening weather. Despite a rain, which had drenched the roads, a large out-of-town delegation was at hand, packing the theater.

The senator at the outset of his speech dealt with the woman suffrage issue, saying that the time had come when the women of America must be organized to prevent them from being fooled again.

"It was the women's vote that elected President Wilson," he declared, "and they voted for him because he kept us out of war."

"I was not for woman suffrage at first," said the senator. "It was not until I began to fear Socialism. Socialism is against private ownership. Socialism strikes at the home. It does away with marriage. It takes the babies away from the breasts of the mothers and does away with all that is sacred to American womanhood. For that reason I am for woman suffrage."

The senator went into an elaborate attack on both administrations of President Wilson, declaring that the weak policy with Mexico led Germany to believe we would not stand up for our rights. He assailed President Wilson's election on his "program of hypocrisy," recalling the billboards that spread the campaign's slogan, "He protected me and mine," when he knew at that time war was inevitable. The senator declared that that was reducing politics to a low plane and appealed for the square deal.

He also assailed the railroad administration and then jumped on the league of nations. Senator Watson declared that peace with Germany could have been concluded long ago if the president had not insisted on the league. He said that all America had to do is to say respect American rights or feel the power of American government and all will respect us. He cited the military program and the universal training favored by the administration as not being square with the league, asking

The weather man kept his promise last night when he said rain and colder for today. At six o'clock last night it cleared off, and indications pointed out that the weather man was going to be mistaken, as he had been the night before, when he predicted a cold wave which never reached here. About midnight a heavy rain began to fall, and earlier in the morning it continued to rain. The temperature at seven o'clock this morning was 52 degrees, and a drop of ten degrees was noticed before noon. Fair weather, with continued cold, is the prediction for Sunday.

TEACHERS TO ATTEND THE STATE MEETING

Rushville Schools Will be Dismissed
Friday, Oct. 31 to Allow Them
to Enjoy Sessions

NO MEETING HELD LAST YEAR

Many Rush county school teachers will attend the annual meeting of the Indiana Teachers association which will be held in Indianapolis October 30 and 31 and November 1. Plans have been made to dismiss the Rushville schools on Friday, October 31, so that the teachers may attend Friday's session. Teachers will receive full pay if they attend the state association on the day that school is dismissed, but it is not compulsory for them to be present.

In many cities of the state, the schools will be dismissed both Thursday and Friday, but the first word received here was that no meeting would be held on Thursday, and arrangements were made just to dismiss the schools on Friday.

Many teachers are planning to go Thursday evening at the close of school in order to hear the address by Governor Lowden of Illinois that night. There was no meeting of the state association last year on account of the war, which has tended to increase interest in this year's session.

HUTCHERSON APPEARS AND GIVES BOND TODAY

Liberty Man Enters no Plea to Indictment Charging Unlawful
Driving of Automobile

CORTUER NOT IN COURT TODAY

Grover C. Hutcherson of Liberty, who was indicted by the grand jury last week on a charge of operating an automobile unlawfully, appeared in court late yesterday afternoon and gave bond for $50, but entered no plea. He ran into a traffic post at the corner of Morgan and Second streets a year ago last March and later sued the city for $500 damages for obstructing the street. The jury disagreed when the case was heard and the suit has been sent to Decatur county for another trial. Hutcherson was once tried before Mayor Irvin by a jury for unlawful driving of an automobile, but was acquitted.

It was expected that Martin Cortuer of Indianapolis who was found guilty by a jury yesterday afternoon in surety of peace proceedings, would be brought before Judge Sparks today, but he had not been taken into court early this afternoon. It is stated that Cortuer will be set free if he gives bond to keep the peace, but if he is unable to do so, will have to serve ninety days in jail.

Annual United Presbyterian Meeting
in Morning Sun, O., Next Week
To be Attended by Many

THE PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Besides Local Pastor, the Rev. C. S.
Black Will Tell Them How
The Methodists Did It

The sixty-second annual meeting of the Second Synod of the United Presbyterian church of North America will take place October 14 and 15, at Morning Sun, Ohio, as the Rushville church is a part of this synod, the Rev. J. T. Aikin and A. C. Brown will go from here, and every church in the county will be represented.

The Rev. Mr. Aikin of the local church is chairman on boards of the church committee, and they will make a report on Wednesday afternoon. The meeting commences Tuesday night and every minute on Wednesday is taken up with some kind of work, Thursday morning the session adjourns.

The Rev. A. W. Jamieson, formerly pastor of the local church, is on the program for several sermons and talks. He is now synodical superintendent of missions.

One of the main things which will be dealt with in the annual meeting this year, is the "New World Movement," of which much has been said at meeting of other church synods, and which is the big issue with churches since the close of the war.

In connection with this part of the program, the Rev. Clyde S. Black, of the St. Paul's M. E. church of this city, will deliver an address on Wednesday, the subject being, "How the Methodists did it in Their Centenary."

With the local men on the program next week, it is likely that the annual synod will attract quite a few Rushville people to the meeting. The program has been completely arranged for the occasion, and addresses will be delivered by Ernest B. McClellan, retiring moderator; J. Knox Montgomery, secretary; J. Alvin Orr, chairman; and many others who are well known to the synod, of which the United Presbyterian of this city is a member.

WHEAT PROSPECTS PLEASE THE FARMERS

Rain Has Proven Beneficial To Crop
But Has Delayed The Cutting
of Corn

WHEAT ACREAGE IS SMALLER

The rain of the last few days has hindered farm work in many places, especially where corn cutting had been started. While the rain has stopped farm work in some instances, yet the farmers who have their wheat planted are very thankful for the showers. A large acreage of wheat has been sown, and farmers say that it is coming up in fine shape and they are highly elated with the early prospects.

Much corn ground will be sown in wheat this fall and the work of cutting corn is stopped temporarily in a few places. The farmers say that wheat may be safely sown as late as the fifteenth of this month. There is not as much wheat being sown this year, as last year, because of the uncertainty of market conditions.

EMANUEL MAKES A THREAT

Says He Will Abdicate if Military
Continues to Support D'Annunzio

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 11.—The Rome correspondent of the Morning Post reported he has learned from a reliable source that King Emmanuel has threatened to abdicate if the army and navy department insists on supporting D'Annunzio at Fiume. Other dispatches declare that General Cechinon has resigned as commander of the Florence army corps and has issued a manifesto divesting himself of an oath to "King" D'Annunzio's forces at Fiume. He was appointed commander of the military forces there, according to the dispatches.

BURGLARS ENTER SCHATZ'S HOUSE

Robbery is Discovered When Miss
Libby Schatz Finds Her Purse
Had Been Stolen

ENTER BY UNLOCKED WINDOW

Burglars entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Schatz, corner of Sexton and Third streets, Thursday night, it became known today, and stole a pocketbook belonging to Miss Libby Schatz, which contained $6. The theft was not discovered until yesterday noon when Miss Schatz went to get her purse out of the library table drawer.

Members of the family remarked yesterday morning, that someone was probably in the house the night before because the drawers in the buffet were open and apparently had been ransacked. As nothing was missed, however, the burglar theory was forgotten until Miss Schatz discovered the loss of her pocketbook. It was then found that the robber had gained entrance through a window in the dining room which had not been locked.

It was on Thursday night that burglars entered the home of Howard Stamm, 522 West First street, where the police were called yesterday. Nothing was taken at Stamm's home.

IS IN TOUCH WITH AFFAIRS

(By United Press.)

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Wilson will be forced to remain in bed for an extended period, it was announced at the White House this afternoon.

Dr. Grayson made this announcement in his daily bulletin.

The bulletin said the president shows signs of continued improvement but his condition is such as to necessitate him remaining in bed for an extended period.

During the last forty-eight hours the president has been in touch with affairs of state obtained from Dr. Grayson.

Four doctors affixed their signatures on the bulletin concerning the president's condition for the first time today.

FALL OF RIGA IS NOT CONFIRMED

Reports Received Today Add Little
to Previous Dispatches Concerning "New German War"

INTEREST FOCUSED ON NOTE

Question Arises Whether Supreme
Council's Ultimatum Will Cause
Withdrawal of Huns

London, Oct. 11.—Confirmation of a newspaper report that German forces have captured Riga is being awaited here, but if the disparity of the rival forces is as great as reported in some dispatches, the success of the attack on the city would not be surprising.

"Germany's new war" is featured in this morning's newspapers, but reports printed here add nothing of importance to dispatches previously received.

The whereabouts of General von der Goltz, continues to be the subject of contradictory rumors and estimates of the size of the army commanded by Colonel Avaloff-Bermond also show a wide divergence.

It is recalled that General Keller, commander of a large body of soldiers in the Baltic provinces, recruited from German troops left in Courland by the allies at the time of the armistice, is a Baltic baron, formerly a general in the Russian army. He has established headquarters at Shavli, while General von der Goltz has his headquarters at Mitau.

Prince Peter Lieven, formerly of the Russian foreign office, is superintending the co-ordination of the forces commanded by these two leaders, it being intended to transfer the occupation of Lithuania and Courland to a nominally Russian-Lithuanian army, composed in part of Germans from the ranks of Von der Goltz's troops. This move, it is said led to the present hostilities.

The Morning Post, which is pronounced anti-German, attacks the British government for having "fumbled the whole question." It sees Poland "in danger of being throttled by the Teutonic grip now tightening on her throat," and says that Premier Paderewski's flying visit to London recently was for the purpose of imploring help from Great Britain, which the newspaper hopes will be granted.

The Daily News, representing an opposite view from that of the Morning Post, also attacks the government and the allies, declaring: "The unintelligible chaos into

There were eight prizes and the fact that he was shown with the best animals in the country is evidence that he is a great hog. Hog raisers throughout the country who were there, stated that Long Big Bone should have had first or second prize, but Mr. Shelton is well pleased.

Nash Trucks

Experienced Buyers Recognize Unusual Values of Nash Trucks

Careful investigation of the Nash truck line convinces the experienced buyer of the high value of any truck bearing the Nash name plate.

This is illustrated again by the fact that after an extensive experience with motor truck transportation of various types, the U. S. Marine Corps selected the Nash Quad as standard equipment for expeditionary service. This is the reason Nash trucks are hauling the loads of many big commercial concerns which operate fleets of trucks in many cities.

This preference for Nash trucks is based on sound business judgment. For they have behind them, assuring their continued good performance, the standing and permanency in the industry of the Nash institution with its nation-wide sales and service organizations of distributors and dealers.

Nash Trucks—One-Ton Chassis, $1650; Two-Ton Chassis, $2250; Nash Quad Chassis, $3250.

SEASON IS OPENED WITH 2 VICTORIES

Rushville High School Varsity Defeats Arlington First Team Friday Night, 38 to 12.

SECOND STRING WINS TOO.

Takes Curtain Raiser From Arlington Seconds, 23 to 10—Capt. Headlee in Good Form.

Rushville high school basketball team opened the season at the Graham Annex gymnasium with two victories, the varsity defeating the Arlington high school team 38 to 12 and the Rushville second team winning from the Arlington second team 23 to 10 last night. The visitors never had a show at any stage of either game.

Next week's date was open on the Rushville schedule but has been filled, a game having been arranged with Morristown.

Casady, Rushville forward, and Moore, guard, performed in star fashion in the curtain raiser, the former throwing three field goals and the latter five. Arlington's best point winner was W. Nelson, forward, who was credited with two field goals and four foul goals.

Headlee, captain of Rushville's first team, led the way in the main game of the evening with eight field and two foul goals, scoring almost half of the points. Eakins, guard, was not far behind this record with six field goals. D. Nelson outpointed his team mates on the Arlington five scoring six points with three field goals.

The attendance was good, considering the fact that it was the opening of the season. Carl Gunning refereed both contests.

JUNIORS PLAN TO BE BROTHERS AND SISTERS TO WORLD CHILDREN

LITTLE brothers and sisters to all the children of the world—that's what the school boys and girls of America are going to be called from now on. The Junior Membership department of the Red Cross has a plan which will gather them all into this relationship. Even the smaller kiddies will be included.
In central Europe 200,000 children are starving—75,000 are hungry and homeless in Petrograd alone. Sixty per cent of the membership fees are to be sent to National Headquarters for a National Children's Fund to relieve suffering throughout the world.

In America, in smaller numbers, there are children in need of help. These unfortunate are not to be forgotten while the orphans of France and Belgium are receiving aid. The remaining forty per cent of the Junior fees, as well as any additional money raised by the school children, is to be expended for community activities.
Under this head there are many classes. Crippled children are to be found in almost any town, and the Juniors will help them to buy crutches or artificial hands and legs. Little folks in need of hospital or medical care will have American Red Cross Juniors ready to foot the bills if the fathers aren't able to pay the expenses.
Junior auxiliaries will try to furnish diversion for the children who live in orphanages and for the shut-ins. The ideal of the organization is to establish international understanding and good will among all children; to provide motives for purposeful school activities, and to carry out ideals and habits of service.

More Than Billion Wasted.

The waste of more than a billion dollars in the construction of aircraft which never reached the battle front which has been alleged many times since the war ended, is proved by testimony taken by James A. Fear, chairman of the subcommittee named by the war expenditures committee of the national house of representatives to visit the Pacific coast.

Not only was money wasted just like throwing it in the ocean, in building aircraft which was never within sound of a gun, but also there was useless waste in the construction of railroads, according to Mr. Fear. The actual expenditure of $1,055,000,000 produced no results whatever in the way of providing machines for American airmen who were waiting for a chance at the Germans.

Of the original amount of $1,600,000,000 appropriated by congress for air work in the prosecution of the war, enough was stopped by legislation shortly after the armistice to bring the figure down to nearly a billion dollars, but of this total not any actual battle result was ever achieved. There were 235 de Havilland observation planes on the front, but no bombing machines. It is expected that the final evidence of the ruthless extravagance in the expenditure will be brought out in the report of the committee.

In Oregon a railroad spur for logging purposes was built from Yakima Bay south to what is known as the Blodgett tract. The 23 miles of road were constructed at a cost of $90,000 a mile. The cost of building this same road in ordinary circumstances would have been $10,000 or $15,000 a mile. On December 2, 1918, nearly a month after the signing of the armistice, a contract was made for the purchase of timber in the Blodgett tract at the price of $675,000. This when all necessity for the purchase had passed.

Another road was constructed from Yakima Bay north ten miles, at a cost of $1,440,000, or $144,000 per mile, as compared to the $10,000 or $15,000 per mile for average construction of logging roads in that section. This was not built directly into the spruce tract needed for airplane construction, but by a roundabout and unnecessary way.

From a junction at Disque, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, into the Lake Pleasant and Olympic tract of spruce in Washington, 36 miles of logging road were built at a cost of $4,000,000. This does not include equipment at an additional cost of $60,000 per mile. The road was not built directly into the tract, but by such a route as would eventually benefit the main line of the road. All of the three roads investigated were found to have been salvaged after the war for about 8 per cent of the cost to the government, and can be of benefit only to the main lines of the Northern Pacific and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. All of the contracts were let by the Secretary of War.

Long Hours.

An argument submitted on behalf of the striking steel workers made the point that working hours have been too long in the past. When work is arduous, we are told that it is prejudicial to a man's health, to work more than eight hours, one day after another.

There seems to be sense in this. Many of the jobs in steel mills are singularly arduous. Of course, the farm hand works longer hours, but the grind is not so killing. And it is bad economics—also morally wrong—to let men continue working under conditions which hurt their health.

On the other hand, most steel workers draw exceedingly high wages. A few of them even make as much as $60 to $80 a day, which is a pretty good sum to drag down, even if the day's work is tiring. This, however, is no argument for making a working day long enough to be prejudicial to health.

Both sides are wrong. Some way of shortening the working day would, one would think, be easy to work out. According to some of the chemical experts at the mills, a shorter day would not be consistent with the manufacture of certain grades of steel—extraordinary conditions are necessary in the construction of it. This may be true, but the war has taught us how to accomplish nearly everything that is chemically and anatomically impossible, and here is one more chance for a high-flying savant. This however, would not satisfy the strikers. They want an enforcement of their rule forbidding any man to work at their trade without their consent. And in a free country it should be every man's privilege to work, if he likes, wherever an employer can use him. Let any man who wants to join a union, but let those who prefer to stay out do so without being penalized for their independence.

The world was not made in a day. Neither was a fortune—honestly.

Don't be a grouch until after you have made your pile. Then you are only eccentric.

IND. AND MINN. TO MEET ON GRIDIRON

Football Teams of Two Colleges Will Clash in Indianapolis Next Saturday

BOTH HAVE STRONG TEAMS

Winner Will Stand Chance to Win Championship of The Western Conference

With the world's baseball title decided this week, the eyes of Hoosier sport lovers will turn to the state football classic which will be staged at Indianapolis, Saturday, October 18, between the universities of Indiana and Minnesota. The winner of this contest will prove a decided contender for the championship of the western conference and as both institutions boast teams of unusual caliber, a battle royal is predicted. No game in the state this year will bring such a large number of fans to the capital, and alumni of I. U. from all parts of the state are planning to attend the contest.

A peculiar clause barring moving pictures of the game has been inserted in the contract between the two schools at the insistence of Coach Williams of Minnesota. When Coach Stiehm of Indiana was head mentor at Nebraska, his eleven wall-pictures of the contest were shown all over the Missouri Valley. Williams was so chagrined over the publicity given his defeat that he always demanded afterwards that no reels should be made of any game in which his men took part.

That the Gopher coach respects the ability of the Hoosier pigskin chasers is shown by the scouts who have been attending Indiana's early games. These men have filled many pages with diagrams of the plays used and the Minnesota players have been specially trained in stopping them. This information will prove of little value, however, as nothing but straight football has been employed so far by Stiehm's men. In the next ten days a box of trick plays will be opened for the benefit of the Northwestern. They will consist largely of forward passes which made football so spectacular from the average spectator's point of view.

GOV'T. WILL GRADE ALL WHEAT ON APPEAL

Wheat Director Announces That he Will Take Care of Intrastate as Well as Interstate Transactions

THE LAW HAS BEEN CHANGED.

Washington, D. C. October 11—Effective immediately, the United States Department of Agriculture will handle all wheat appeals from licensed inspectors' grades on intrastate as well as interstate transaction. Formerly, under the grain standards act, wheat was required to be shipped or delivered for shipment across State lines before an appeal could be taken to the Government.

The new arrangement has been made by the Secretary at the urgent request of Julius H. Barnes, United States Wheat Director, and is effective under authority and during the continuation of the Food Control Act, the Wheat Guaranty Act, and the Executive order of May 14, 1919. Mr. Barnes stated that it was necessary to make the appeal privilege on all wheat whether interstate or intrastate in order to make the guarantee good to the producer of wheat everywhere in the United States.

Pursuant to this agreement Federal Grain Supervisors in all the large markets of the United States have been instructed to entertain all wheat appeals.

In the dome of his lofty forehead there is firm conviction that all sons of democracy should know before all else that 1215 is the date of this important event. Once in an effort to impress one of the lower classes in history with the overwhelming importance this date bears upon the freedom of man he said:

"If at any time you ever forget the date of the signing of the Magna Charter wire me."

Big Lot of Hay Fever Jokes

Get Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"You, there, a real SURE-THING for that offensive remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city. "But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Menthadine Arcline and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by adding a single drop of Menthadine Arcline to a glass of water a few times a day the expected nervous attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show it is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Best of All Remedies" who dispense Menthadine Arcline say it will give a healthy hay attack even when taken three or four days after the attack begins.

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a plan.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

Bio-Ferax is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, run-down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—and many packages.

WILL USE FLAG MAST FOR A LIBERTY POLE

Civic Center Will be Established on Admiral Farragut's Old Home Grounds

MAST FROM U. S. S. HARTFORD

Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Plans were complete today transposing the old home of Admiral Farragut and the grounds of the old Zion church into a civic center here and to erect there as a "Liberty pole" the mainmast of the U. S. S. Hartford, the Admiral's flagship.

The church grounds recently were given to the Grace Episcopal church here by Mrs. W. W. Fowler, of Parkville, S. C., following suggestion of Rev. Horace E. Clute, pastor, who had been working on the idea for several months.

Carrying out the plans will depend on the decision of the navy department to allow use of the obsolete ship's mast. It is understood, however, no difficulties will be met, Rev. Clute said.

Admiral Farragut lived here before the war and Zion church was built with prize money won by the admiral in the capture of Confederate blockade runners.

Harry O. Brown, historian, who learned that the Hartford had been relegated to the scrapheap, asked Assistant Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt for its use.

Task of Investigating Health Situation in Schools is Started by the Committee

MANY CITIES INTERESTED.

Greensburg Man Would Have Each School Hire a Competent Nurse To Instruct the Pupils

Indianapolis, Oct. 11—The task of investigating the public health situation in the public schools throughout the state, was begun by a committee today, appointed by L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction, at the regular session of the state board of education.

The matter was first brought before the board by Elmer C. Jorman, the demand for some sort of a program which would lift to a high status the health of school children through proper care and early training along health lines, is greater than the public seems to realize. Instances were cited where many cases of disease among school children could have been checked, with a healthful youthhood resulting, had it been possible to have the child properly safe-guarded against the ills common from contact.

Suggestions were offered by Mr. Jorman which could be carried through if the laws affecting the public health problem were properly written. A trained nurse, Mr. Jorman stated, who would be qualified to teach or a teacher educated along lines of child hygiene would be one way of meeting the situation, not only in Greensburg, but in every city and county throughout the state. Another suggestion was that two departments could be maintained in state schools one for training in Physical culture and the other for instructions in personal hygiene.

E. L. Rickerts of Connersville, a member of the school board, also secretary of the tuberculosis society in that city, outlined the work which had been done toward the betterment of health conditions in his vicinity. Interesting photographs were displayed showing children of all ages affected by various diseases before and after public health service had been rendered. Many cases of spinal curvature which had been seemingly hopeless were caught in time to be corrected, children outgrowing the deformity in a perfect manner.

Much thought has been given to the fresh air question for the purpose of caring for children with lung weaknesses, and it is believed that if the proper amount of funds can be secured through the activities of the Tuberculosis Association of Indiana, provisions can be made for further checking the spread of dread disease.

The people of Shelbyville and Shelby county are squarely behind the child health movement according to J. W. Holton, county school superintendent. The committee appointed by the board of education includes E. U. Graff, E. B. Weatherow and B. J. Burris. The matter is expected to assume a more forcible aspect when it is brought before the next session of the board, as the committee will be able to render a report in full of conditions as they find them in the state.

The plans of the board of education will have hearty co-operation according to E. Q. Landeman, executive secretary of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association. This is one of the problems that has held the interest of the association for some time. Mr. Landeman will render all the assistance which can be afforded by this organization toward crushing out the menace. The $270,000 fund will be raised through the sale of 27,000,000 Red Cross Christmas seals by the association, will be used to place a public health nurse in every community throughout the state.

Phonograph Music at its Complete Best

THE mission of the phonograph is to reproduce music just as it was originally rendered. It is not intended that it shall create tones or harmonies of its own. It is simply a medium for picturing, as vividly as possible, the tone-colors of all voices and all instruments.

The peculiar ability of the Aeolian-Vocalion to reproduce musical tones in their natural and original colors is the key to its superiority—a superiority clearly audible to every listener who possesses a musical ear.

Ever since its appearance on the market four years ago, the Vocalion has been recognized by musicians as having the power to render musical tones more clearly and in a more life-like manner than any phonograph. From the first it was possible for the Vocalion to obtain from phonograph records of various makes, tonal beauties that had never before been audible.

Style 620

We invite you to call at our display rooms and hear for yourself—hear your favorite record played—as you have never before dreamed that it could be played—Hear the New Vocalion play all makes of disc records with the same reproducer, with the same needle—AND IMPOSSIBLE—as it may seem to you—without that terrible GRINDING, SCRATCHING NOISE, so commonly heard on the ordinary Phonograph. The New Vocalion with its exclusive features, the Graduola Tone Control, the Improved Automatic Stop and the Insulated lid should appeal to you, if you want Phonograph Music at its Complete Best. Don't be misled. Hear the Vocalion and have its construction explained to you thoroughly before you buy a phonograph. It will be a half hour well spent, and we will be pleased to show you, whether you are ready to buy or not.

BE A MEMBER OF THE JUNIOR RED CROSS

ANY American school, whether it be public, private or parochial, may have a Junior Red Cross auxiliary.

Membership in the Junior Red Cross may be obtained by applying to the nearest Red Cross chapter. As soon as the school enrolls as an auxiliary, every boy and girl in that school becomes a member of the Junior Red Cross.

Membership fees depend upon the size of the school. The yearly fee for each school is one-fourth as many dollars as there are pupils in the school. The Junior membership auxiliary fee is a school fund, not a sum to be collected from individual pupils. Some auxiliaries raise their money by sales or school entertainments. Others have "sacrifice boxes" where candy money is contributed to the Red Cross fund.

The chapter school committee receives the money from the school. Sixty per cent is forwarded to National Headquarters for the National Children's Fund, and forty per cent retained for neighborhood relief work.

THE THREE PURPOSES OF THE JUNIOR RED CROSS.

- To join American children in service for needy children at home and overseas.
- To give American children a chance to learn the satisfaction of unselfish service.
- To bring about understanding among children of all countries.

WITH the opening of the school term this fall the Junior Red Cross will be concerned with two new phases of education.

The first is the internationalization of general education. The other is the providing of scholarships for children of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines who wish to attend schools of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

The closer inter-relationship of nations, resulting from the war, is making necessary, among children everywhere an understanding of the social, industrial and commercial situations as they exist now and as they will be apt to develop.

The teacher who keeps in touch with Junior Red Cross activities will have, this fall, a monthly bulletin that will contain true stories of conditions and incidents over the world and will make her geography and history lessons as live and interesting as a motion picture. These bulletin stories and articles are specially prepared to give a basic understanding of the world as it is in the process of change today.

In order that fatherless boys and girls may have an education that will fit them for taking care of the family dependent upon them, the Juniors will try to provide a scholarship for the use of the orphans of men who have died in service.

What other phonograph dares this test

DID you ask some one about the Edison Tone-Test recital given October 3, at the Main Street Christian Church? The startled audience heard Amy Ellerman's living voice flood the packed house. It then heard the New Edison* match that voice, even unto its finest variation of shading and feeling. It heard the Fleming Sisters Trio repeat the experiment with their instrumental selections,—and again the New Edison matched every quality of harmonized violin, cello and piano. Any one who was present will tell you:

The art of the living artist and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison can not be told apart.

It is no idle phrase that you can enjoy Case, Middleton, Hempel, Matzenauer, Spalding—in your own home. The New Edison brings all that the great artist can bring, except his physical presence. It is the phonographic triumph of the age.

*The instrument used in this Tone-Test is the regular model which sells for $285 (in Canada $431). It is an exact duplicate of the Laboratory Model which Mr. Edison perfected after spending Three Million Dollars in experiments.

TRADE WITH BRAZIL IS EXPECTED TO BOOM

With the Establishment of the American Chamber of Commerce, Business Will Take a Bound

S. AMERICAN TRADE SOUGHT

New York, Oct. 11.—Further stimulation of American business in South America is expected to result from the action of the recently organized American Chamber of Commerce for Brazil in appointing Leslie E. Freeman as resident representative in New York.

Freeman will devote his entire attention to development of trade relations between Brazil and the United States and will make available to all manufacturers and exporters interested in the Latin-American field detailed information regarding business conditions in Brazil.

The American Chamber of Commerce for Brazil is rapidly extending its influence. Since its organization three years ago its entire energies have been directed towards the betterment of trade relations. A chamber has already been organized at Sao Paulo, the great Brazilian industrial center, and other branches are to be organized in other cities of the Latin-American republic.

The chamber, through Paul C. Trimble, its secretary-manager was active in combatting the recent anti-American propaganda in Rio de Janeiro, which sprang up at a time when competition for Brazilian trade was becoming keen.

I. C. WINS VERDICT

The Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company won a verdict in the Morgan circuit court at Martinsville this week when a jury found for the defendant in the case of Ora Rogers against the I. & C. for $30,000 damages. The suit was the outgrowth of an accident at the crossing in Arlington avenue in Indianapolis May 13, 1918, when an I. & C. car struck an automobile containing ten persons, killing three and injuring six.
